Yes there was a Elna 945 workbook and also an 80 minute VHS tape for the machine. They were thrown in when I purchased my Elna back in 1999! I will attach pictures, the tape was pretty good, the workbook really isn't any better than the manual other than larger pictures to look at for threading etc.

The slowest serger featured on our list, the American Home, runs at 1,100 stitches per minute. The fastest on our list, the JUKI, can complete 1,500 stitches per minute. Even the best serger will not replace your sewing machine entirely. Although they can do it, most are not great for zippers or buttonholes, and no serger can perform top-stitching.
