This by far hasn't been the first time I've read The Cow Who Fell in the Canal, but I recently realised I hadn't added it to Goodreads and so it demanded a reread. What a lovely children's book! The story of Henrietta and her adventure has always been a personal favourite, and now I get to share it with all the kids my friends are having when they get old enough to read it.

Shelves: childrens-book, cow, rhyme, rhyming, chicken, pig, sheep, hilda, life-lessons A charming children's book that is both easy and fun to read. Told in rhyming sentences, this is the story of a lovely spotted brown cow who is unhappy with who she is. Surely life must be better as a fluffy sheep, or a pink piggy, or even a fine feathered hen.
